About BeCheeky.com

BeCheeky.com is the 2nd largest multi-branded lingerie website in the UK (Hitwise, September 2008). Sourcing exciting designers from around the world, the team have introduced a number of new brands to the UK. One third (and growing!) of our range of over 100 brands are “Exclusive to BeCheeky.com” and can’t be found anywhere on the high street!

Our collections cover Lingerie, Hosiery, Swimwear and Men’s Underwear and Swimwear. This latest season has seen an increase in the ranges of fabulous bras and lingerie sets for bigger cup sizes; DD to G. This follows research that over 40% of UK women wear a D cup or above.

With a strong focus on customer service and fabulous quality products at all price points we have a loyal fan base built up over the last three years of trading. We’ve just celebrated our third birthday with a re-vamped website featuring greater fashion styling, improved usability and increased functionality.
